

Complex Sentences: Subordination Options

When an independent clause begins a complex sentence, do not put a comma between the clauses.

When a dependent clause begins a complex sentence, put a comma between the clauses.

Dependent Clause Markers

Time = after, before, since, until, when, while Contrast = although, even though, though, whereas Result = in order that, so that, that Cause = as, because, since
Choice = rather than, than, whether Location = where, wherever
Condition = if, even if, provided that, unless